The loving force that has called herself both mentor and tormentor, Martha will continue our March Wisdom journey with a powerful Sunday lesson titled "Wisdom — Two Necessary Paths." Letting go and surrendering enable us to move toward wisdom, a radical journey inward and living the "Universal Christ."

Community Circle

We meet as a group again on Sunday, March 21 after fellowship. The President of the Board, Susan Hagar, will brief us all on what the Board has been doing following which there will be plenty of time to ask questions and offer comments.

Next Sunday, March 28:
Serenity Service on Wisdom
with our Prayer Partners

Next Sunday, we are gifted the opportunity to "take a time apart" from the busy-ness of our 'monkey minds' and further embody our Power of Wisdom: our ability to discern and intuit, to get beyond the intellect, is practised in stillness and silence. The Serenity Service with the Prayer Partners provides such a time.

Fundraiser for Prayer Partner training

USCO Prayer Partners will soon undertake their annual, mandatory training via Zoom from Unity Village, with Rev. Linda Martella-Whitsett and others. Please consider a special donation to the Prayer Partners to help fund the $2,000 training. For more info on the training click here. You can donate via the website at www.unityottawa.org or electronically via officeunityottawa@yahoo.ca. When you donate, please mention that it is for "PP training."

The Association for Global New Thought was co-founded in 1996 to represent the leading edge of the New Thought lineage. Its leadership, member churches and spiritual centres are part of Unity, Religious Science, and nondenominational New Thought communities. For two decades, powerful individual ministers from within those spiritual centres and others have worked together under the banner of The Association for Global New Thought, inspiring congregations worldwide to participate in a mission of spiritually motivated social activism. For more information: www.agnt.today
