This Sunday our exploration of the 12 Powers takes a very special turn. Fresh from each having taken Rev. Paul Hasselbeck's 12 Powers class, three of USCO's members share their personal journeys of embodying these spiritual abilities: Ann Therriault, Marie-Josée Martin and Cheryl Driskell.

Ann is first and foremost a geologist. With a Ph.D. in planetary geology, she has the nickname of "Rock Doc." She has always put as much passion in her spiritual growth as she does for a love of geology. Thanks to her introduction to Unity 13 months ago, Ann has learned and embraced the use of affirmative prayer. She will share how affirmative prayer using the Powers of Elimination, Order and Will is helping her heal thirty years of self-denial.

Marie-Josée is a writer who started her own translation and editing business in 2018. Again and again, she has used the Power of Imagination to turn obstacles into spring-boards. She shares how the past 15th months have tested her strength and how she imagined a path forward with Faith and Will.

Cheryl embraces life with great love for her work as a Sufi Pir and developing workshops in Spiritual Development and Naturotherapies. Cheryl's search for life's meaning began early and led her to the United Church, Buddhism and then to her first Sufi teacher at 21. She has seen the value of inner reflection and how deep surrender into her heart, with LOVE, FAITH and RELEASE, has helped guide her through life's peaks and valleys, to acceptance of life as it is.

THE BIG REVEAL: USCO'S "FUN-RAISER" SOCIAL EVENT Zoom Murder Mystery: The Curse of the Pharaoh June 7 at 7:00 p.m.

Bring yourselves, your friends, your neighbours and fellow sleuths to this fun event.

Dateline: The Valley of the Kings Luxor, Egypt, 23 April 1894.

The excavation season will soon be over as the baking sun makes digging unbearable. However, the archaeological team from Oxford University led by Sir William Saville has made a startling discovery: Sir William has been murdered! His body was found in the tomb of the Pharaoh, and the precious stone, The Emerald of Cleopatra, has been stolen from his bag!

You must help the Constable figure out who has killed Sir William, all while unearthing clues (no pun intended) and trying not to become the next victim of the murderer!

Cost $20 - Proceeds shared between performers and USCO.
To register email officeunityottawa@yahoo.ca no later than May 31.

Costumes: optional but fun
Audience participation: not optional but also fun!
