Unity Kitchener joins us to hear Mony Dojeiji speak about the Faith it took to create her new book, CHANNELINGS. The new year calls us to anchor in Faith, that unshakeable knowing that we are not alone in our journeys and that, despite what our outer eyes may show us, God is all good and active in everything, everywhere.

Mony is a spiritual storyteller and award-winning author. With her pilgrim husband, Alberto Agraso, she creates and publishes books and artwork of the Spirit whose purpose is to extend Love in the world. Her newest book, CHANNELINGS, a collection of messages she has scribed over the years with various Wisdom Teachers, is in itself an act of Faith and of trusting what cannot be physically seen or touched, but merely felt in the heart as a calm certainty.

CHANNELINGS is available on www.amazon.ca.

SUN January 24
A Mentoring Moment
with Rev. Dr. Martha Creek and Linda McCabe

Each of us have created and woven our own unique story. Join Rev. Dr. Martha Creek for a video, Mentoring Moment, with Linda McCabe as they explore their joint adventure to Peru's Sacred Valley in November 2018 and discuss some of the lessons they learned.

Rev. Charlene Smith makes her transition

Sadly, we regret to inform you of the passing of Rev. Charlene Smith who served twice as our minister, once well over 30 years ago and then later when we were meeting in the Ottawa Athletic Centre. Rev. Charlene came to Unity after a near-death experience and was sponsored by Unity to become a minister. She has a daughter, Stephanie, living here in Ottawa and had been residing at the Unitarian House on Cleary Avenue. We will provide you with information concerning plans for her remembrance service when it becomes available.
